The ninth edition of «Ammentu» presents a dossier with the title Entre destino y desatino: Biografie e storie di migrazione dal Nuovo Continente [Between destiny and destination: biographies and stories of emigration to the New World], developed by Maria Cristina Secci and formed of four essays by Cuban and Italian authors. It is «a collection of stories about emigration and unique (and exclusive) biographies; examples of prominent individuals from different fields, such as science, business, the countryside and poetry, who traverse overseas in order to build a proper future» with Latin America being their destination: Uruguay, Cuba and Venezuela. This presentation inaugurates the Recensioni section that features two works: an elaborated synthesis by Michele Carboni of the contents of the book by Silvia Aru “Fare la Merica” Storie d'emigrazione e racconti di vita dei sardi in Brasile (Aipsa, Cagliari 2015, pp. 181); and the review by Roberto Ibba, of the book by Lorenzo Di Biase, Antifascisti sardi in Argentina. Il caso della Lega Sarda d’Azione “Sardegna Avanti” (Anppia Sardegna, Centro Studi SEA, Cagliari - Villacidro 2016, pp. 130).
